SPEAKER · AUTHOR · COACH

Larry Jacobson is a recognized thought leader, coach, and speaker in the field of non-fiscal retirement lifestyle planning.

Successfully transitioning from CEO to sailor, he achieved his dream of sailing around the world, then from sailor to six-time award winning author, coach, and two-time TEDx motivational speaker.

A California native, circumnavigator, and adventurer, Larry Jacobson is an avid sailor with over 50,000 blue water miles under his keel. He is the creator of Sail Into Retirement™, a self-guided video program, which combines home study and personal coaching to ease the transition from work to retirement. He is author of the six-time award-winning memoir of his six-year circumnavigation, The Boy Behind the Gate, and the children's version of that journey, Let's Go!

His works also include Navigating Entrepreneurship, in video and book format. His most recent book is, Your Ideal Retirement Workbook, a Step by Step Guide to Retiring with Purpose and Fulfillment.

Speaking comes naturally to him and Larry is a Certified World Class Speaking Coach for individuals and groups. He customizes every speech, making his stories relevant to the audience, and has presented to corporate clients, associations, youth organizations, and boards of directors. The feedback from participants is always 5-stars with comments of, "Inspiring, Funny, and Relevant." He knows how to deliver your message with impact.

"This book brings nonfinancial retirement coaching to the masses, and I'm glad to see it's Larry doing this for all of us. His creativity shines and the writing is five-star all the way."
—Chip Conley

"For anyone who has ever sailed or wanted to sail, this is one of the most adventurous sailing books out there. And for those who are thinking about circumnavigating the world, this book should be on the top of your list. The author has my vote as the US sailing ambassador to the world."
